My dear Congressman:

For some time I have contemplated getting in touch with you to suggest that either I visit your office or invite you to come out to the building to lunch and review some matters of mutual interest. I don't believe that you have had an opportunity to visit our headquarters building since its completion, and I wondered whether you would like to come out for lunch at an early date--perhaps during the Congressional Easter recess. If this is agreeable to you, would you ask your office to call me on Code 143, Extension and set a date at your convenience.

Sincerely yours,
